

Sayyid Qutb's Vision

Sayyid opposed secularism, nationalism, capitalism and communism.

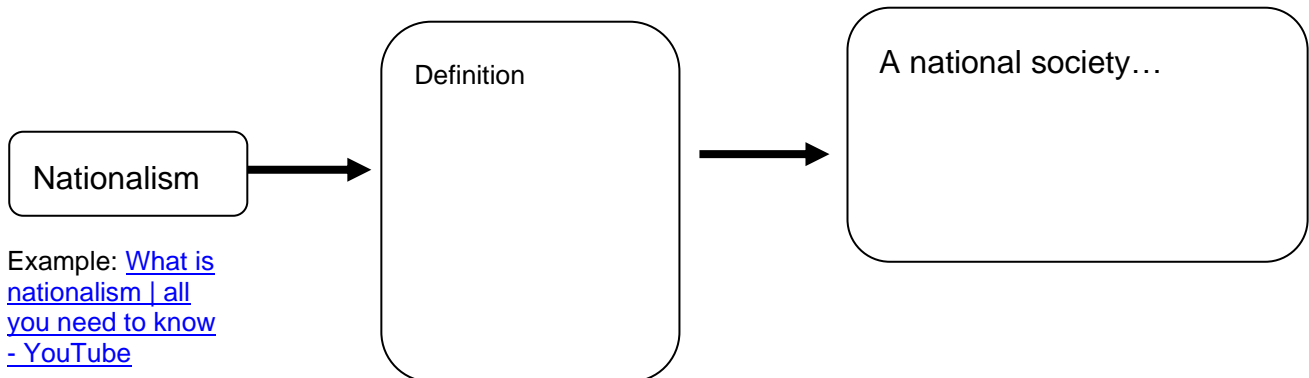

He espoused Islam as a comprehensive political and social system that ensures social justice for all the masses.

Complete the mapping below using your own words.

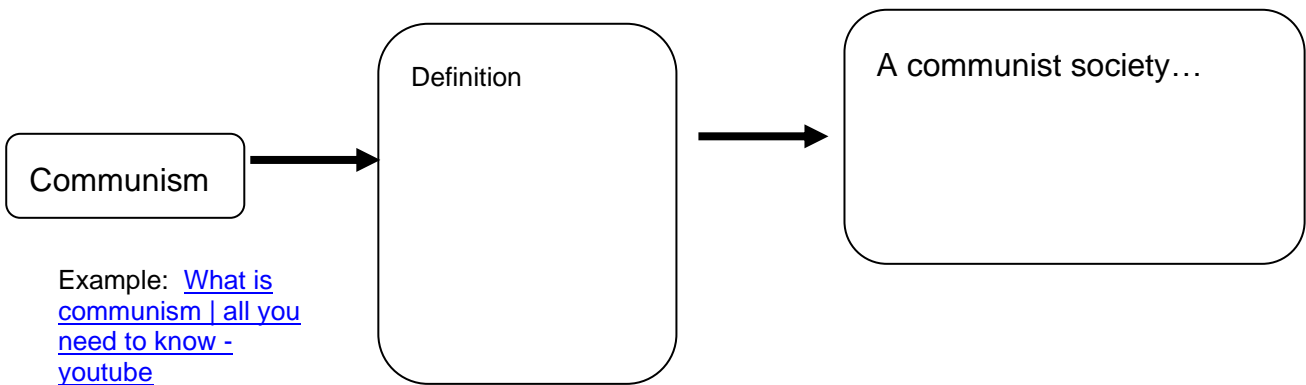

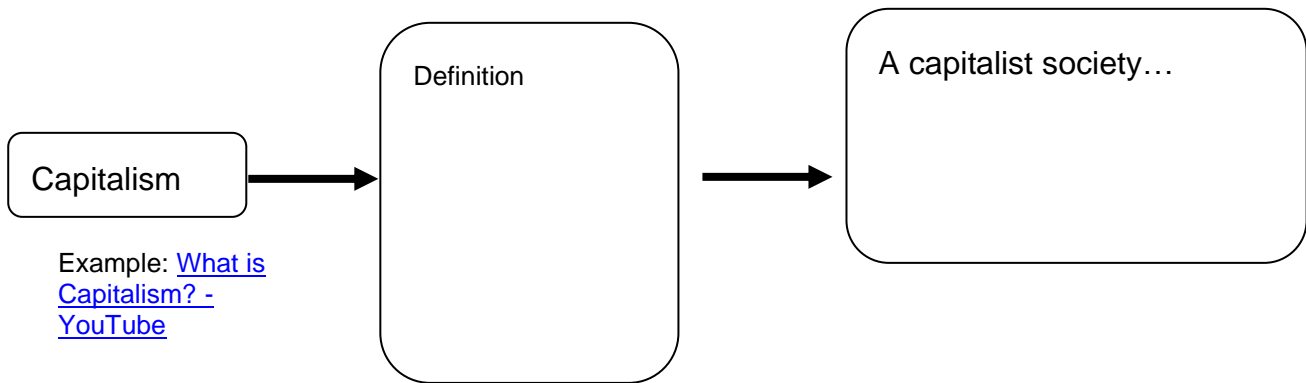

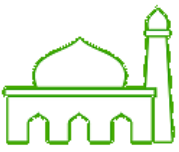

Watch the YouTube videos or similar ones to help complete the mapping.

Example: Secularism - YouTube
by National Secular Society

Example: What is nationalism | all you need to know - YouTube

Describe Sayyid's view of religion.

Sayyid Qutb's Vision

Sayyid opposed secularism, nationalism, capitalism and communism.

He espoused Islam as a comprehensive political and social system that ensures social justice for all the masses.

Match the following terms with their definition below:

Capitalism

communism

nationalism

secularism

| | |
|---|--|
| Governments should remain neutral on the matter of religion and should not enforce nor prohibit the free exercise of religion, leaving religious choice to the liberty of the people. | |
| Identification with one's own nation and support for its interests, especially to the exclusion or detriment of the interests of other nations. | |
| An economic and political system in which a country's trade and industry are controlled by private owners for profit, rather than by the state. | |
| A theory or system of social organisation in which all property is owned by the community and each person contributes and receives according to their ability and needs. | |

What was Sayyid's view of religion?

Sayyid was a religious _____ who wanted to tie every single _____ of life of individuals to _____ through strict Sharia laws. He held a strict stance on _____ and _____ matters. He loathed the secular _____ practised in western _____.

| | | |
|-----------|-----------|----------------|
| aspect | countries | fundamentalist |
| lifestyle | religion | religious |
| secular | | |

Solutions to Worksheet OR-I546 Sayyid Qutb's Vision

| | |
|-------------|---|
| secularism | Governments should remain neutral on the matter of religion and should not enforce nor prohibit the free exercise of religion, leaving religious choice to the liberty of the people. |
| nationalism | Identification with one's own nation and support for its interests, especially to the exclusion or detriment of the interests of other nations. |
| capitalism | An economic and political system in which a country's trade and industry are controlled by private owners for profit, rather than by the state. |
| communism | A theory or system of social organization in which all property is owned by the community and each person contributes and receives according to their ability and needs. |

Sayyid's view of religion

Sayyid was a religious fundamentalist who wanted to tie every single aspect of life of individuals to religion through strict Sharia laws. He held a strict stance on religious and secular matters. He loathed the secular lifestyle practised in western countries.