

Principal Beliefs – Judaism

State true or false for the following statements related to the principal beliefs of Buddhism. Rewrite the false statements to read correctly.

The most fundamental aspect of Jewish Belief concerning God is the affirmation of God's oneness.
The Shema calls upon all Jewish people to affirm their belief in many Gods.
In the Book of Genesis, God is depicted as having completed the act of creation.
In Genesis, God's involvement in creation is nonexistent.
According to the prophets in the Hebrew Bible, repentance is that which heals the relationship between man and man.
According to Judaism, the messianic fulfillment will end all evil and suffering and the wicked will be punished.
God is temporal.
God is incorporeal.
Moses was the least of the prophets.
God cannot know the thoughts and deeds of man.
The dead will be resurrected.
God exists.
Jewish law allows Jews to choose what type of food they eat.
Jews should act in such a way as to establish shalom, 'peace and well-being' among all people.
Jews believe that God appointed the Jews to be His chosen people in order to set an example of holiness and ethical behaviour to the world.
Jewish religious life is based only around the synagogue.
God commanded the Jewish People to observe the Sabbath and keep it holy as the fourth of the Ten Commandments.
A religious Jew tries to bring holiness into everything they do, by doing it as an act that praises God, and honours everything God has done. For such a person, the whole of their life becomes an act of worship.
Judaism is a faith of action and Jews believe people should be judged not so much by the intellectual content of their beliefs, but by the way they live their faith.

Solutions to Worksheet OR-J525: Principal Beliefs- Judaism

The most fundamental aspect of Jewish Belief concerning God is the affirmation of God's oneness.	T
The Shema calls upon all Jewish people to affirm their belief in many Gods. The Shema calls upon all Jewish people to affirm their belief in the one, only and unique God of Israel.	F
In the Book of Genesis, God is depicted as having completed the act of creation.	T
In Genesis, God's involvement in creation is nonexistent. In Genesis, God's involvement in creation continues in a loving and caring way.	F
According to the prophets in the Hebrew Bible, repentance is that which heals the relationship between man and man. According to the prophets in the Hebrew Bible, repentance is that which heals the relationship between God and Humanity.	F
According to Judaism, the messianic fulfillment will end all evil and suffering and the wicked will be punished.	T
God is temporal. God is eternal.	F
God is incorporeal.	T
Moses was the least of the prophets. Moses was the greatest of the prophets.	F
God cannot know the thoughts and deeds of man. God knows the thoughts and deeds of men.	F
The dead will be resurrected.	T
God exists.	T
Jewish law allows Jews to choose what type of food they eat. Jewish law commands that people should eat only Kosher food.	F
Jews should act in such a way as to establish shalom, 'peace and well-being' among all people.	T
Jews believe that God appointed the Jews to be His chosen people in order to set an example of holiness and ethical behaviour to the world.	T
Jewish religious life is based only around the synagogue. Jewish religious life is based around the home and family activities.	F
God commanded the Jewish People to observe the Sabbath and keep it holy as the fourth of the Ten Commandments.	T
A religious Jew tries to bring holiness into everything they do, by doing it as an act that praises God, and honours everything God has done. For such a person, the whole of their life becomes an act of worship.	T
Judaism is a faith of action and Jews believe people should be judged not so much by the intellectual content of their beliefs, but by the way they live their faith.	T