

Jihad Explained

The true meaning of Jihad can be divided into five types.

Find words associated with the five types of Jihad:

Jihad with the _____ (1 across)

Jihad against _____ (4 across)

Jihad with _____ (5 across)

Jihad with _____ (2 down)

Jihad through _____ (3 down)

Complete the sentences below using the words provided:

- |                             |                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|-----------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Jihad against oneself       | - the daily _____ against evil and _____ in life.                                                                                                                                            |
| Jihad with knowledge        | - the struggle to use _____, particularly from the Qur'an, to fight _____ and to gain converts to Islam not through _____, but through the _____ of Qur'anic knowledge.                      |
| Jihad with wealth           | - the struggle to give up _____ wealth for the benefit of Islam, through _____ donations.                                                                                                    |
| Jihad with the sword        | - the physical struggle to defend _____ against harm from unbelievers. Muslims believe that if they give their _____ in this military jihad they will be rewarded with eternal _____. |
| Jihad through righteousness | - the struggle to continuously undertake _____ deeds to please _____ and benefit _____.                                                                                                      |

battle	charitable	God	good
humanity		ignorance	Islam
knowledge	lives	material	paradise
power		struggle	temptation

Solutions to worksheet OR-I302: Jihad Explained

Jihad with the sword (1 across)

Jihad against oneself (4 across)

Jihad with knowledge (5 across)

Jihad with wealth (2 down)

Jihad through righteousness (3 down)

Jihad against oneself	- the daily struggle against evil and temptation in life
Jihad with knowledge	- the struggle to use knowledge , particularly from the Qur'an, to fight ignorance and to gain converts to Islam not through battle , but through the power of Qur'anic knowledge.
Jihad with wealth	- the struggle to give up material wealth for the benefit of Islam, through charitable donations.
Jihad with the sword	- the physical struggle to defend Islam against harm from unbelievers. Muslims believe that if they give their lives in this military jihad they will be rewarded with eternal paradise .
Jihad through righteousness	- the struggle to continuously undertake good deeds to please God and benefit humanity .