

Religion and Culture

The relationship between Religion and Culture is complicated, but they are both important in the lives of humans and how they construct and make sense of the world around them.

Use the word 'religion' in a sentence.

Use the word 'culture' in a sentence.

Religion	Culture
Elements of religion include:	Elements of culture include:
e.g. sacred writings	e.g. behaviour

Common elements

For example, food is a common element in both religion and culture – kosher food for Jews, abstinence for Christians, approved food for Hindus and Buddhists (i.e. different foods used for different festivals)

Some ideas to Worksheet GRL-R576 Religion and Culture

Religion	Culture
Elements of religion include:	Elements of culture include:
Sacred writings Ethics Rites of passage Festivals and seasons Arts and architecture History Social institutions Key beliefs Liturgy Etc.	Behaviour Thinking Symbols Rituals Intellectual climate Arts Ways of living Social groups Key beliefs Status and symbols Media images Class/caste system Affected by geography Climate Demography Etc