

The Rift between East and West

CC-CH304

Indicate whether the information belongs to Western Catholic or Eastern Orthodox.

Western Catholic

Eastern Orthodox

crucifix

Monks did not cut their hair.

Patriarch of Constantinople

Pope

Monks wore the tonsure (their heads were shaved in the centre).

Liturgy was lavish and elaborate.

Unleavened bread

Leavened bread

Icons

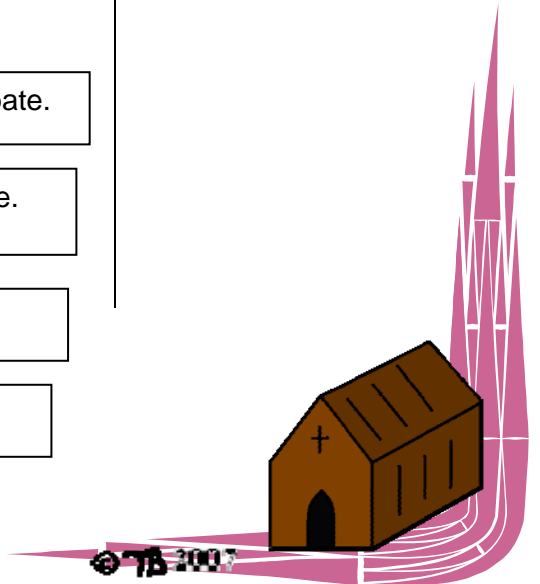

Liturgy was a simple style.

Bishops, monks and priest were celibate.

Bishops and monks were celibate.
Priests could marry.

Language of the Mass was Greek.

Language of the Mass was Latin.

Solutions to Worksheet CC-CH304: The Rift between the East and WestWestern Catholic*Eastern Orthodox

Pope
Crucifix
Unleavened bread
Monks wore the tonsure and heads were shaved in the centre
Bishop, monks and priests were celibate
Liturgy was a simple style
Language of the Mass was Latin

Patriarch of Constantinople
Icons
Leavened bread
Monks did not cut their hair

Bishop and monks were celibate.
Priests were allowed to marry.
Liturgy was lavish and elaborate
Language of the Mass was Greek