

Ecumenism

Ecumenism:

1. is characterised by a search for _____, openness to _____ which means dying and being _____.
2. theology is a theology of sources and origins. It:
 - looks at the original inspiration in the life of _____ and asks if we are being _____ to that charter.
 - looks at _____, and the Fathers of the early _____ history.
3. theology is a theology of fellowship:
 - different ways of seeing the Church and each has its own _____.
4. theology is rooted and grounded in _____
 - quite often difficult to apply.

Bringing Churches Together, pages 3-9

-9

change

Christ

Church

faithful

love

reborn

scriptures

truth

validity

Solutions to Worksheet CC-CH378: Ecumenism

Ecumenism and Ecumenical refer to efforts to restore unity. Ecumenical movement is a process towards a greater expression of unity and co-operation among all Christians.

Ecumenism:

5. is characterised by a search for truth, openness to change which means dying and being reborn.
6. theology is a theology of sources and origins. It:
 - looks at the original inspiration in the life of Christ and asks if we are being faithful to that charter.
 - looks at scriptures, and the Fathers of the early Church history.
7. theology is a theology of fellowship:
 - different ways of seeing the Church and each has its own validity.
8. theology is rooted and grounded in love
 - quite often difficult to apply.